The addresses of the recipients shall be such addresses as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic shares, a notice of general meeting may also be made by way of announcement.

The "announcement" referred in the preceding paragraph shall be published within a period of forty-five to fifty days prior to the date of the general meeting in one or more newspapers and journals designated by the CSRC and the securities regulatory authorities of the places where the Company's shares are listed. Article 84 After the notice of general meeting is issued, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without a proper reason and the proposals stated in the notice of general meeting shall not be cancelled. In the event of any postponement or cancellation, the convener shall issue an announcement and state the reasons therein at least two working days prior to the original date of the general meeting.

Section 4 Holding of General Meetings

Article 85 The Board and other conveners will take necessary measures to ensure the normal order of a general meeting. Article 88 Shareholders shall appoint their proxies by written instruments, which shall be signed by the principals or their agents appointed in writing. If the principal is a legal person, the instrument shall be under the seal of the legal person or signed by its director(s) or duly authorized agent(s).

Article 89 The instrument of appointment by which a shareholder appoints another person to attend a general meeting shall specify the following particulars:

- (6) the date of issuance and term of validity of the instrument of appointment;
- (7) the signature (or seal) of the principal; if the principal is a legal person, the power of attorney shall bear the seal of the legal person.

Article 90 The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting within 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or 24 hours prior to the specified time of the vote. If the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the principal, the power of attorney or other document authorizing the signature shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorizing document shall be deposited together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

If the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by a resolution of its Board or other decision-making body shall attend the general meeting of the Company as the representative of such legal person.

Where the shareholder is a recognized clearing house (or its proxy) as defined by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Ordinance, one or more individuals that it deems suitable may be appointed by it to act as its representative(s) at any general meeting or any class shareholders' meeting; however, if two or more individuals are appointed as representatives, their powers of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares involved in the appointment of each such individual. The individual(s) so appointed may exercise the rights of the recognized clearing house (or its proxy) as if he, she or they was or were(an) individual shareholder(s) of the Company.

Article 91 Any form issued by the Board of the Company to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast an affirmative or negative vote and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted on in connection with each point of discussion of the meeting. The instrument of appointment shall specify that whether in the absence of instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he or she thinks fit.

Article 92 A vote made in accordance with the terms of an instrument of appointment shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the relevant shares, as long as the Company did not receive written notice of the event before the relevant meeting commenced.

Article 93 If the Company convenes a general meeting, all directors, supervisors, and the secretary to the Board shall attend the meeting. The president who is not a director of the Company and other senior management members shall be present at the meeting except for proper reasons.

If a general meeting is convened by a shareholder himself or shareholders themselves in accordance with the statutory procedure, the meeting shall be presided over by the representative selected by the convener(s).

When a general meeting is held, if the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure, making continuance of the general meeting impossible, with the consent of shareholders holding more than one half of the voting rights present at the meeting, the general meeting may elect a person to serve as chairman of the meeting and the meeting shall continue. If, for any reason, the shareholders are unable to elect a meeting chairman, the shareholder (including his or her proxy) present who holds the greatest number of voting shares shall serve as the meeting chairman and preside over the meeting.

Article 95 The Company shall formulate the Rules of Procedure for General Meetings which shall specify in detail the procedures for calling and voting at general meeting, and cover notification, registration, the consideration of proposals, voting, vote counting, announcement of voting results, the adoption of meeting resolutions, the keeping and signing of meeting minutes, announcement, etc., as well as the principles for the authorization of the Board by the general meeting. The Rules of Procedure for General Meetings shall serve as an Appendix to these Articles of Association, be drafted by the Board and adopted by the general meeting.

The meeting minutes should be maintained together with the signature book of attending shareholders and letters of attorney of their proxies and valid information online and by other forms of voting as the Company's files for a period of at least ten years.

Article 101 The convener shall ensure that the general meeting is conducted continually until final resolutions are received and considered. In the event of special reasons such as force majeure resulting in the termination of a general meeting or the failure to receive and consider any resolutions, necessary measures shall be taken to resume the general meeting as soon as practicable; alternatively, the meeting may be terminated in such circumstances with an announcement timely made. Meanwhile, the convener shall report to the local branch of the CSRC and the stock exchanges.

Section 5 Resolution and Voting of General meeting

Article 102 Resolutions of general meetings are in the form of ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution of a general meeting shall be passed with the approval of more than half of the voting rights held or represented by all the shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting.

A special resolution of a general meeting shall be passed with the approval of more than two thirds of the voting rights held or represented by all the shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting.

Article 103 The following matters shall be adopted by way of ordinary resolutions at general meetings:

- (1) operation guidelines and investment plans of the Company;
- (2) appointment and dismissal of directors and supervisors who are not employees' representatives, and their remuneration and the payment thereof;
- (3) work reports of the Board and the supervisory committee;
- (4) annual budget plans, final account plans of the Company;
- (5) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans prepared by the Board;
- (6) appointment, dismissal or discontinuing the appointment of accounting firms;
- (7) matters relating to the changes in the use of proceeds;
- (8) the Company's donation and sponsorship plans in the amount of more than RMB5 million at a single time;
- (9) annual reports of the Company;

- (10) other matters other than those required by the laws and regulations, the regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 104 The following matters shall be adopted by way of special resolutions at general meetings:

- (1) increase or reduction in the registered capital of the Company;
- (2) issue of corporate bonds, shares of any class, stock warrants and other similar securities;
- (3) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change in the corporate form of the Company;
- (4) amendments to these Articles of Association;
- (5) the purchases and disposals of material assets or guarantees within one year, which exceed 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (6) the share incentive schemes;
- (7) any other matters required by the laws and regulations, the regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles of Association, and matters considered in an ordinary resolution adopted at a general meeting having a material impact on the Company, and thus in need of approval by a special resolution.

Article 105 Shareholders (including proxies) shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of shares carrying voting rights they represent, with one vote for each share.

When a general meeting considers a material event affecting the interests of small and medium investors, voting for small and medium investors shall be counted separately. The results of separate counting shall be publicly disclosed in a timely manner.

The shares of the Company held by itself do not have voting rights, and such shares are not included in the total number of shares with voting rights attending the general meeting.

The Company's Board, independent non-executive directors and shareholders who meet the relevant requirements can publicly solicit shareholders' voting rights. The solicitation of shareholders' voting rights shall fully disclose the specific voting intentions and other information to the solicited persons. It is forbidden to solicit shareholders' voting rights in a paid or disguised paid form. The Company shall not impose restriction of minimum shareholding ratio on the solicitation of voting rights.

Article 106 Voting at a general meeting shall be in the form of registered poll or other methods required by the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 107 A poll demanded on such matters as the election of chairman of the meeting or the suspension of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matters shall be taken at such time as the chairman may decide, and the meeting may proceed to discuss other matters, while the outcome of the poll shall still be deemed to be a resolution of that meeting.

Article 108 In a voting at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 109 Under the precondition that the general meetings are legal and effective, the Company shall give priority to providing modern information technology means such as online voting platforms using various methods and means to facilitate the participation of shareholders in the general meetings.

Article 110 The chairman of the meeting shall determine whether or not a resolution of the general meeting shall be adopted based on the voting result. His decision shall be final and conclusive, and the voting result shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 111 When connected transactions are being considered at a general meeting, the connected shareholders shall abstain from voting, and the number of shares carrying voting rights represented by them shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes. The announcement on the resolutions of a general meeting shall fully disclose the voting results of non-connected shareholders.

If any shareholder shall abstain from voting on other resolutions in accordance with the regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, or such rules limit any shareholder to vote in favor of or against certain resolution, the voting which violates such requirement or limitation by such shareholder or his proxy shall not be included in the voting results.

Article 112 List of candidates for directors and supervisors who are not employees' representatives shall be submitted in the form of proposals to the general meeting for vote. The election of directors and supervisors shall fully reflect the opinions of small and medium shareholders.

If an individual shareholder and the parties acting in concert with it have 30% or more of equity interests, the general meeting shall adopt a cumulative voting system when voting on the election of directors and supervisors. The Board shall make announcement on the resumes and basic information of the director and supervisor candidates to the shareholders.

The cumulative voting system mentioned in the preceding paragraph means that when two or more directors or supervisors are elected at the general meeting, each share held by shareholders has the same number of voting rights as the number of directors or supervisors to be elected and the shareholder can vote by concentrating the number of shares held.

The implementation rules for the cumulative voting system are:

Prior to voting for the candidates for directors or supervisors at the general meeting, the chairman of the general meeting shall inform the shareholders present at the meeting expressly that the cumulative voting is applied for the candidates for directors or supervisors and the Board must prepare votes applicable to the cumulative voting. The secretary of the Board shall explain and describe the cumulative voting method and vote filling method, to ensure that the shareholders correctly exercise their right to cast votes.

When electing directors by way of exercising the cumulative voting system, independent non-executive directors and other directors should be elected separately to ensure the proportion of independent non-executive directors on the Board.

A shareholder may freely allocate its or his or her votes among the candidates for directors (or supervisors), either to allocate to a number of persons, or to vote all in favor of one person. Where a shareholder exercises more voting rights than all the voting rights it or he or she holds, such voting shall be invalid; if a shareholder exercises fewer voting rights than all the voting rights it or he or she holds, such voting shall be valid and the difference shall be regard as abstention. Where the last two or more candidates have the same number of votes and all of them being elected would result in the number of directors or supervisors elected exceeding the number of candidates that should be elected, such candidates shall be re-elected in accordance with the prescribed procedures in the Articles of Association. If the number of directors or supervisors elected is less than the number specified in the Articles of Association, the Company shall restart the cumulative voting procedure for the vacancy.

The methods and procedures for nomination of directors and supervisors who are not staff representatives are as follows:

- (1) a shareholder alone or shareholders together holding at least 3% of the total outstanding voting shares of the Company may propose the candidates for directors and supervisors to the general meeting in a written form, provided that the number of persons nominated complies with these Articles of Association and is not greater than the number of persons to be elected. The written materials including their basic particulars and the résumés shall be enclosed;
- (2) the nomination committee of the Board or the supervisory committee may, to the extent of the number of persons specified in these Articles of Association, propose a list of recommended director candidates or supervisor candidates consistent with the number of persons to be elected, and submit the same to the Board or the supervisory committee, as the case may be, for review. Once the Board or the supervisory committee has conducted its review and adopted a resolution determining the director or supervisor candidates, it shall bring the same before the general meeting in the form of a written proposal;
- (3) the nomination of candidates for independent non-executive directors shall be carried out in accordance with laws and regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed;

- (4) the written notices of the intention to nominate director or supervisor candidates and of the nominees indicating their willingness to accept the nomination as well as relevant written materials on the nominees shall be dispatched to the Company at least 14 days before the date of the general meeting. The director candidates shall furnish to the Company an undertaking in writing to accept the nomination, give warranty that the information provided is true and complete and pledge to discharge duties as directors upon election. The Board or the supervisory committee shall provide to the shareholders the résumés and basic particulars of the director or supervisor candidates;
- (5) the period accorded by the Company to the nominators and candidates to submit the aforementioned notices and documents shall not be less than 14 days (counting from the day immediately following the date of issuance of the notice of the general meeting);
- (6) the general meeting votes on each of the director or supervisor candidates except for those applicable to cumulative voting;
- (7) when an additional director shall be temporarily nominated, the nomination committee of the Board or the shareholders satisfying the conditions for making such nomination may propose a candidate to the Board for consideration, and to the shareholders' general meeting for election or replacement. When an additional supervisor shall be temporarily nominated, the supervisory committee may propose a candidate to the shareholders' general meeting for election or replacement.

Article 113 The general meeting shall vote on each proposal individually except cumulative voting. Where there are different proposals on the same issue, voting should be carried out in the chronological order of the proposals raised. Except in case of special reasons such as force majeure, resulting to suspension of the general meetings or incapability of voting on resolutions, the general meeting will not suspend or reject to vote.

When the proposal is being considered at the general meeting, no amendment to the proposal shall be made, otherwise such amendment shall be considered as a new proposal which cannot be voted in such general meeting.

A vote can only be casted by one of the following methods: on site, online or by other voting means. If one vote is cast more than once, the first vote shall prevail.

General meetings shall adopt voting by open ballot.

Before the relevant proposal is voted on at a general meeting, two representatives of the shareholders shall be elected for counting the votes and scrutinizing the poll. Any shareholder who is interested in the matter under consideration and his proxy shall not take part in counting the votes or scrutinizing the poll.

When the relevant proposal is being voted on at the general meeting, the representatives of shareholders, the representatives of supervisors and lawyers shall be jointly responsible for counting the votes and scrutinizing the poll, and the voting result shall be announced at the meeting. The voting results relating to such proposed resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting.

The shareholders or their proxies who vote through the online platform or other means have the right to check their voting results in the corresponding voting system.

Article 114 The on-site general meeting shall not be terminated ahead of that held via online or other means, and the chairman of the general meeting shall announce the voting status and voting result for each proposal and announce whether a resolution is passed according to the voting result.

Before the voting result is officially announced, the listed company, counter, scrutineer, substantial shareholders, online services provider and other related parties involved in the on-site general meeting, on the Internet or held via other means shall keep the voting result in confidential.

Shareholders present at the meeting shall provide one of following comments on motions to be voted: for, against or abstain. Except for the securities registration and settlement institutions which, being the nominal holders of shares subject to the interconnection mechanism of the Mainland and Hong Kong stock market transactions, shall make declaration according to the intentions of actual holders.

Unfilled, wrongly filled or illegible votes are regarded as the voters giving up their voting rights and the voting results of their shares shall be “abstained”.

Article 115 Where the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the voting result of a resolution proposed for voting, he may request the votes to be counted. If the chairman of the meeting fails to have the votes counted, any shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may require immediately after the declaration that the votes be counted, the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 116 Where the votes are counted at a general meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes together with the signature book for shareholders' attendance and the letters of proxy for proxies attending the meeting shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Article 117 The announcement of the resolutions passed at the general meeting shall be timely published and specify the number of the shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the number of shares carrying voting rights held by them and the percentage of such shares in relation to the total number of shares of the Company, the means of voting, the voting result of each resolution and the details of the resolutions passed.

Article 118 Where the proposed resolution is not passed, or the general meeting alters the resolution(s) passed at the previous general meeting, a special note shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 119 Where proposed resolutions in relation to the election of directors or supervisors are passed at a general meeting, the appointment of the new directors or supervisors shall become effective on the date when the relevant proposals on the election are passed at the general meeting, unless otherwise expressly specified in the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 120 Where a proposed resolution in relation to the payment of cash dividends, the issue of bonus shares or the capitalization of capital reserves has been passed at a general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plans within two months after the conclusion of such general meeting.

Article 121 Copies of the meeting minutes shall be available for inspection during business hours of the Company by any shareholder without charge. If any shareholder demands from the Company a copy of such minutes, the Company shall deliver the copy within 7 days after the receipt of reasonable costs.

CHAPTER 8 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY CLASS SHAREHOLDERS

Article 122 Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall be entitled to the rights and assume obligations pursuant to the provisions of laws and these Articles of Association.

Article 123 Any variation or abrogation of the rights of any class shareholders proposed by the Company may only come into effect upon the adoption of a special resolution at a general meeting and approval by the affected class shareholders at a separate meeting convened in accordance with Articles 124 to 128.

Neither the approval of the general meeting or a class shareholders' meeting shall be required if a variation or abrogation of the rights of class shareholders arises due to a decision made in accordance with the laws by the domestic or foreign regulators, or due to a change in domestic or foreign laws or the listing rules of the place of listing.

Article 124 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be a variation or abrogation of the rights of a certain class shareholders:

- (1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of such class, or increase or decrease the number of shares of another class carrying rights to voting, distribution or other privileges equal or superior to those of shares of such class;

- (11) to restructure the Company where the proposed restructuring scheme will result in different classes of shareholders bearing a disproportionate burden of obligations of such restructuring;
- (12) to amend or abrogate the terms provided in this chapter.

Article 125 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not having the right to vote at the general meetings, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings on matters referred to in clauses (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) of Article 124 of these Articles of Association, but interested shareholders shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

The interested shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph have the following meanings:

Article 126 Resolutions of a class shareholders’ meeting may be passed only by two-thirds or more of the equity interests carrying voting rights that are represented at the meeting in accordance with Article 124 of these Articles of Association.

Article 127 When the Company is to hold a class shareholders’ meeting, it shall issue a written notice 45 days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of that class of the matters to be considered at and the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders that intend to attend the meeting shall, within 20 days prior the day on which the meeting is to be held, serve a written reply on the Company stating that they will attend the meeting.

If the number of shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting is more than half of the total number of shares of that class carrying the right to vote at the meeting, the Company may hold the class shareholders’ meeting. If not, the Company shall, within 5 days, inform the shareholders once again of the matters to be considered at and the date and place of the meeting in the form of a public announcement. After such notification by public announcement, the Company may hold the class shareholders’ meeting.

Article 128 If a class shareholders’ meeting is to be called by issuance of a meeting notice, notice of such meeting need be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, the procedure according to which class shareholders’ meetings are held shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedure according to which general meetings are held. Provisions of these Articles of Association relevant to procedures for the holding of general meetings shall be applicable to class shareholders’ meetings.

Article 129 In addition to the holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed foreign shares shall be deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special voting procedures for class shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

- (1) where, as approved by way of a special resolution of the general meeting, the Company issues, either separately or concurrently, domestic investment shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares every 12 months, and the quantity of domestic investment shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares intended to be issued does not exceed 20% of the outstanding shares of the respective classes;

Article 130 The Directors of the Company shall be natural persons. Directors need not hold shares of the Company. The Company's directors shall include executive directors, non-executive directors and independent non-executive directors. The term "executive director" means a director who serves in an operational/management position in the Company. The term "non-executive director" means a Director who does not serve in an operational/management position with the Company. The term "independent non-executive director" means a director who satisfies the provisions of Article 137 of these Articles of Association. Article 131 Directors shall be elected or replaced by the general meeting and serve terms of three years. At the expiration of their terms, directors may continue to serve as such if re-elected.

The term of office of a director shall count from the date on which the resolution is passed at the general meeting until the expiration of the term of the incumbent Board. If an election is not timely held at the expiration of the term of service of a director, the incumbent director shall continue to perform his or her duties as a director in accordance with laws and these Articles of Association until the incoming director assumes his or her position.

The general meeting may not remove a director from office without cause before the expiration of his or her term of office. The president and other senior management members may concurrently serve as directors provided that the number of directors concurrently serving as the president and in other senior management positions does not exceed one-half of the total number of directors of the Company.

Article 216 When distributing each year's profit after taxation, the Company shall set aside 10% of its profit for the statutory surplus reserve fund of the Company.

When the aggregate balance in the statutory surplus reserve fund has reached 50% or more of the registered capital of the Company, the Company need not make any further allocations to that fund.

Where the statutory surplus reserve fund of the Company is not enough to make up losses of the Company for the preceding year, the current year's profits shall be applied firstly to make up the losses before being allocated to the statutory surplus reserve fund in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

Subject to a resolution of the general meeting, after allocation has been made to the Company's statutory surplus reserve fund from its profit after taxation, the Company may set aside funds for the discretionary reserve fund.

After the Company has made up its losses and made allocations to its common reserves, the remaining profits of the Company shall be distributed in proportion to the shareholdings of its shareholders, unless these Articles of Association provide that distributions are to be made otherwise than proportionally.

If a general meeting violates the provisions above and profits are distributed to the shareholders before the Company makes up losses or makes allocations to the statutory reserve fund, shareholders shall return the profits distributed in violation of the provisions to the Company.

No profit shall be distributed in respect of the shares of the Company which are held by the Company.

Article 217 The Company's profit distribution policy is as follows:

(1) Principle of profit distribution

1. The Company fully considers the return to investors and distributes dividends to shareholders according to a certain percentage of the distributable profits realized in the consolidated statements of the Company in the current year;
2. The Company's profit distribution policy maintains continuity and stability, while taking into account the Company's long-term interests, the overall interests of all shareholders and the sustainable development of the Company;

3. The Company prefers the distribution of profits by cash dividends.

(2) Specific policies of profit distribution

1. Form of profit distribution: Under the premise of complying with the relevant laws and regulations, the relevant provisions and conditions of the normative documents, and maintaining the continuity and stability of the profit distribution policy, the Company may distribute profit by distributing cash dividends, distributing stock dividends or both. The Board may formulate annual or interim dividend distribution plans according to the Company's current size of profit, cash flow, stage of development and capital demand.
2. Specific conditions and proportions of the Company's cash dividends: Except for special circumstances, if the Company's profit in the current year and the accumulated undistributed profit are positive, the Company will prefer the cash distribution of dividends after the full withdrawal of the statutory surplus reserve fund and any discretionary reserve fund. Under the condition of cash dividends, the annual profit distributed in cash is not less than 25% of the distributable profits realized in the current year.

Special circumstances mean:

- (i) Affected by force majeure events (such as wars, natural disasters, etc.), the Company's production and operation are greatly affected;
- (ii) The net cash flow from operating activities in the current year is negative, and the implementation of cash dividends will affect the Company's subsequent sustainable operations;
- (iii) The audit institution did not issue a standard unqualified audit report on the Company's financial report for the year;
- (iv) The Company has a major investment plan or other significant cash expenditures (except for funding projects).

A major investment plan or significant cash expenditure means that the cumulative amount of the Company's proposed external investment, acquisition of assets or purchase of equipment in the next 12 months reaches or exceeds 30% of the Company's latest audited net assets.

3. The specific conditions for the Company to distribute stock dividends: The Company is in good operating condition, and the Board believes that the Company's stock price does not match the Company's share capital, and the distribution of stock dividends is in the overall interests of all shareholders of the Company as a whole. Provided that the conditions for cash dividends set out above have been met, the stock dividend distribution plan may be proposed. When the Company adopts stock dividends for profit distribution, it should be based on the premise of giving shareholders reasonable cash dividends and maintaining the appropriate share capital, taking into account the real and reasonable factors such as the Company's growth and the dilution of net assets per share.

(3) Differentiated cash dividend distribution policy

The Board shall distinguish the following circumstances after taking into account various factors including its industry features, development stages, business model and profitability as well as whether it has any substantial capital expenditure arrangement, and stipulate differentiated cash dividend policy in accordance with the procedures set out in these Articles of Association:

1. Where the Company is in a developed stage with no substantial capital expenditure arrangement, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 80% of the total profit distribution when distributing its profits;
2. Where the Company is in a developed stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangement, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 40% of the total profit distribution when distributing its profits;
3. Where the Company is in a developing stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangement, the dividend distributed in the form of cash shall not be less than 20% of the total profit distribution when distributing its profits.

Where it is difficult to identify the development stage of the Company but there is substantial capital expenditure arrangement, dividend distribution may be dealt with in accordance with the preceding provisions. The specific stage in which the Company conducts profit distribution shall be determined by the Board according to the specific circumstances.

- (4) Decision-making procedures and mechanisms for the Company's profit distribution
1. The Company's profit distribution plan shall be prepared by the management and shall be submitted to the Board and the supervisory committee for consideration. The Board fully discusses the rationality of the profit distribution plan, and submits a special proposal to the general meeting for deliberation. When the Company achieved profitability in the previous financial year, but the Board does not make cash dividends or distribute profits according to the percentage of cash dividend stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association, the independent non-executive directors should issue independent opinions. The Company should provide online voting methods to facilitate the public Shareholders to participate in the general meeting to vote;
 2. When the Company formulates a specific plan for cash dividends, the Board should seriously study and demonstrate the timing, conditions and minimum proportion of the Company's cash dividends, the conditions for adjustment and the requirements for decision-making procedures. Independent non-executive directors should express independent opinions. Independent non-executive directors may collect opinions from minority shareholders, propose dividends, and submit them directly to the Board for consideration;
 3. Before the general meeting deliberates on the specific plan for cash dividends, the Company shall communicate and exchange opinion with shareholders (especially small and medium shareholders) through various channels (including but not limited to telephone, fax, email, onsite reception, etc.), and fully listen to the opinions and appeals of the small and medium shareholders and promptly reply to the concerns of the small and medium shareholders;

4. When the Company does not make cash dividends due to the special circumstances specified above, the Board will give special explanations on the specific reasons for not paying cash dividends, the exact use of retained earnings of the Company and the expected investment income, and, after the independent non-executive directors express their opinions, submit the same to the general meeting for review and disclose the same in the Company's designated media.

(5) Adjustment of the Company's profit distribution policy

If there is force majeure such as war or natural disaster, or changes in the Company's external business environment (such as change of national policies and regulations), which have a material impact on the Company's production and operation, or when the Company's own business conditions change greatly, the Company may adjust its policy on profit distribution.

The Company's adjustment to the profit distribution policy shall be specially discussed by the Board, and the reasons for the adjustment shall be discussed in detail, and the written argumentation report shall be submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for approval by way of special resolution, after being reviewed by independent non-executive directors. When considering changes to the profit distribution policy, the Company shall provide shareholders with an online voting channel. When the general meeting considers the changes in the profit distribution plan policy, the opinions of the small and medium shareholders should be fully considered.

Article 218 Reserve funds of the Company are used for recovering losses of the Company, expanding scale of operation or transferring its capital. However, capital reserve fund shall not be used to recover losses of the Company.

In the event that the Company transfers the statutory reserve funds to its capital, the remaining balance of such reserve fund must not be less than 25% of the registered capital before the transfer.

Article 219 The Company may distribute dividends through the following methods: cash, stock or other means permitted by laws, regulations and the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 220 Cash dividends and other monies paid by the Company to holders of domestic shares shall be paid in RMB. In distributing dividends to shareholders, the Company shall withhold the taxes payable by shareholders from the amount of their dividend income in accordance with the PRC tax law.

Monies paid for any shares before calling shall bear interest, but are not entitled to dividends announced subsequent to the calling for such monies.

Article 221 The Company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of the holders of foreign shares. The receiving agents shall receive and hold on behalf of such shareholders dividends declared and all other monies owing by the Company in respect of such shares pending payment to them.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall satisfy the relevant requirements of the laws of the place and relevant regulations of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

The receiving agents appointed for the holders of foreign shares shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

In respect of dividends payable to shareholders, subject to the rules of the relevant stock exchanges, the Company has the right to forfeit unclaimed dividends, which shall not be exercised prior to the expiry of the applicable period for claiming dividends.

If the Company has the power to cease sending dividend warrants by post, it shall satisfy the following conditions:

- (1) such dividend warrants have been left uncashed on two consecutive occasions; or
- (2) after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

When permitted by laws, the Company has the power to sell the shares of a member who is untraceable under the following circumstances:
